Etiquette and Cultural Expectations

Do's and Don'ts

Do's

- Respect the local customs and traditions. Greece has a strong sense of tradition, so it's important to show respect for local customs and beliefs.
- Learn a few basic Greek phrases. Even a simple "hello" or "thank you" can go a long way in showing your appreciation for the local culture.

Don'ts:

- Don't be overly familiar with strangers. While Greeks are generally friendly, it's important to maintain a certain level of formality when meeting new people.
- Don't be afraid to haggle. Haggling is a common practice in many Greek markets and shops. Don't be afraid to negotiate for a better price.

Event information

Solo Activities while in Greece

1. Island Hopping: Touring the Greek islands, each with its unique charm. From the cosmopolitan Mykonos to the laid-back Santorini. Rent a scooter to explore the island's hidden gems, relax on the beach and soak up the sun.
2. Hiking and Nature: Hiking through the Samaria Gorge on Crete, exploring the Meteora monasteries, or trekking in the Pindus Mountains. Enjoy the fresh air, stunning scenery, and tranquility of the Greek countryside.
3. Relaxing Beach Time: Greece is renowned for its beautiful beaches, offering crystal-clear waters and golden sands. Find a secluded cove to enjoy some peace and quiet, or visit a popular beach to meet other travelers.
